DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

4. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1, 2, 4-6, 14-19, 37-39 and 41, drawn to a paste comprising bacterial cell wall components (CWS).

Group II, claim(s) 7-10, drawn to a process for preparation of a paste.

Group III, claim(s) 11, drawn to a paste comprising bacterial CWS.

Group IV, claim(s) 20 and 21, drawn to a process for preparation of a paste.

Group V, claim(s) 24 and 25, drawn to an assembly of bacterial CWS particles.

Group VI, claim(s) 26-28, drawn to a process for the assembly of bacterial CWS particles.

Group VII, claim(s) 29-30 and 33-36, drawn to a process for the identification of a species and/or strain of a bacterium.

Group VIII, claim(s) 31 and 32, drawn to a process for assay of immunopotentiating activity of a bacterial CWS.

Group IX, claim(s) 22 and 40, drawn to a paste that is lyophilized.

5. The inventions listed as Groups I through IX do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The technical feature common to Groups I and IV is a composition comprising bacterial CWS and an oil, where the viscosity is 0.7 poise or less. The technical feature common to Groups I through IV is composition comprising bacterial CWS and an oil. The technical feature common to groups I through IV and V through VIII is a composition comprising bacterial CWS. However, Azuma et al. (EP 1097715 A1, 2001) teach a composition comprising bacterial CWS and an oil (p. 17, line 57-p. 18, line 11). The composition is suspended in squalene and water, and would therefore have a viscosity of less than 0.7 poise (water has a viscosity of 0.009 poise at 25 degrees Celsius and squalene has a viscosity of 0.2 poise at 30 degrees Celsius; note that one centipoise equals one millipascal; CRC Handbook of Chemistry and Physics p. 6-175 and US Pat. 4,122,023, col. 8, table 1). Further, there is no technical feature common to Groups I through VIII and IX. Therefore, the inventions of Groups I through IX do not share a special technical feature that makes a contribution over the prior art.

Notice of Potential Rejoinder

6. The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims.

Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.

7. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

8. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Sheridan R. MacAuley whose telephone number is (571) 270-3056. The examiner can normally be reached on Mon-Thurs, 7:30AM-5:00PM EST, alternate Fridays.
